

1.-3. September 2015, Herrenhausen Palace

Concept of the symposium:

STUDIO URBANE LANDSCHAFTEN

Volkswagen Stiftung

LET'S WALK URBAN LANDSCAPES.

New pathways in design research

Remark: Names in black = speakers confirmed, names in grey = speakers not confirmed

Day 1: 1st September EXPERIENCES AND QUESTIONS

08:30	Briefing and Discussion with young researchers Members of the jury: Prof. Dr. Lisa Diedrich, Prof. Antje Stokman, Prof. Dr. Hille von Seggern, Prof. Dr. Thomas Sieverts, Prof. Dr. Martin Prominski	20 selected young researchers with design research related PhDs will critically reflect the processes and results of the symposium
10:00	Prof. Dr. Wilhelm Krull, Volkswagen Foundation, Hanover Welcome Address
	Prof. Antje Stokman: Introduction: A new kind of symposium	Who is STUDIO URBANE LANDSCHAFTEN? Why is this symposium different?
Forum: DESIGN RESEARCH IN URBAN LANDSCAPES   Moderation: Lisa Diedrich
10:30	Prof. Dr. Martin Prominski Urban landscapes and Research through Design	State of the art: Landscape design research incl. projects
11:00	Prof. Dr. Hille von Seggern Understanding Landscapes – Researching + Designing Raumeschehen	Theory + practice STUDIO approach incl. projects
11:30	Prof. Dr. Dr. Sabine Kunst Design Research and policy making	Why are new forms of research relevant?
12:00	Discussion Moderation: Prof. Dr. Lisa Diedrich	with Sanda Lenzholzer (Assist. Prof. Landscape Architecture, Wageningen), Peter Veenstra (LoLa Landscape Architects Rotterdam), S. Kunst, M. Prominski, H. v.Seggern)
13:30	Lunch break
14:30	Dr. Henrik Schultz Why Walking? - Engagement and Ideas	Introduction for workshops, the common thread of the different methods, thesis for the exhibition

Day 1: 1st September EXPERIENCES AND QUESTIONS

15:00	6 Workshops: NAVIGATING Prof. Dr. Sigrun Langner + kanarinka aka Catherine D' Ignazio WANDERN Dr. Henrik Schultz + Till Krause BEGINNINGS Julia Werner + Dr. Saskia Hebert STORYTELLING Anke Schmidt + N.N. PLAYING Christiane Kania + Prof. Klaus Overmeyer MOVING Elisa Serra + Emanuele Braga	Methods of landscape design and research Orientation, training, motivation, inspiration
18:30	Buffet
20:00	N.N. Potentials of walking for creating knowledge Evening Address

Day 2: 2nd September EXPERIMENTING with NAVIGATING, WANDERN, BEGINNING, STORYTELLING, PLAYING, MOVING

09:00	Meeting at starting points, Walking individually or in small teams, applying and testing the different methodologies of creating knowledge in a designerly way	Instead of dividing the symposium in a majority of passive attendants and a minority of active speakers, everyone will be a contributing participant of the symposium. For this purpose, the core of the symposium will take place "in the field": All participants will walk in one of six different areas of Hanover's urban landscapes. The aim is: Testing new ideas for designing urban landscapes through concrete design research experiments for Hanover's urban landscapes.
15:00	Reception at outside foyer Herrenhausen Palace

Day 2: 2nd September EXPERIMENTING with NAVIGATING, WANDERN, BEGINNING, STORYTELLING, PLAYING, MOVING

15:30 Designing a pop-up-exhibition.

In the afternoon after their arrival at Herrenhausen Palace the participants will present their findings in a pop-up exhibition – either individually or in self-defined teams. An exhibition framework provides blank spaces to be filled by contributions of individuals or small teams. Types of representation will not be defined and can range from images to performed walking rhythms, stories or plays etc. The collective exhibition will provide the base for further discussions and reflections on day three
