1. Study Abroad : HOW?

1. ERASMUS+ exchange program
2. non-EU exchange program
3. Free Mover

„Abroad“ Options at HCU Hamburg

1.1 ERASMUS Study

- Study abroad of 3 – 12 months at an HCU Partner University
- Meaning: there has to exist a Partnership Agreement with the target university
- Students are enrolled in a degree program leading to a university degree (up to and including doctorate)
- Students have completed at least their first year of BA study
- the nationality of the students does not matter; meaning, even non-EU citizens qualify for ERASMUS funding
- Students have sufficient language skills in the language of instruction

Anm.: Grundsätzlich sind alle Partneruniversitäten im Bereich A de jure auch offen für SP + REAP + UD; Angebote im Bereich SP sind i.d.R. auch geeignet für A + REAP + UD. Allerdings sollten Sie die Studienangebote inhaltlich prüfen, ob sie auch wirklich zu Ihren Studienwünschen passen. KM-Studierende können bei allen PHS prüfen, ob es passende Studieninhalte gibt.

„Abroad“ Options at HCU Hamburg

1.1 ERASMUS STUDY

- The degree programs A / REAP / UD / SP are largely interchangeable
- Desired university not on the list?
 - Not at all: inform the IO about your desired destination; additional work required!
 - University Yes, but area of study No: it might be possible for the existing partnership agreement to be extended accordingly
 - For contract negotiations (and changes to partnership agreements) often about 1 year lead time needed!

„Abroad“ Options at HCU Hamburg

1.1 ERASMUS STUDY Services for Students

- Application at the HCU (not the partner university) = less expensive, more easy
- Exemption from tuition fees at the partner university
- Right to recognition of “equivalent” performance abroad
- Payment of a mobility grant (rd. 300 € per month)
- For students with disabilities and students with children: additional funding
- Support in the professional and linguistic preparation for study abroad and, usually, support from the host institution regarding accommodation, cultural and social offerings etc.
- Applications due: for WS 2020/21 and/or SoSe 2021 until 31 Jan 2020
Application materials: on the IO's website in the submenu “Outgoing”
<https://www.hcu-hamburg.de/io/outgoing>

„Abroad“ Options at HCU Hamburg

1.1 ERASMUS STUDY

Allocation of student at the partner university is carried out by the International Office, which also coordinates the selection of scholarship holders in consultation with the Erasmus Departmental Coordinators or the selection committee.

Selection criteria are:

- academic qualifications (= grades)
- motivation (letter of motivation)
- well-planned study proposal that is realistic and feasible
- sufficient language skills

Opportunities Abroad at the HCU

1.2 Non-EU Exchange Study

- HCU-PROMOS (300/400€) process + funding
 - Germans + non-Germans (unless: incoming scholarship holders)
 - Applications due: for SoSe 2020 or WS 2020/21 until 30 Nov 2020
 - Application materials: on the IO's website in the submenu "Outgoing"
 - Application online + paper <https://www.hcu-hamburg.de/io/outgoing>
 - HCU International Office coordinates the selection committee
 - Selection criteria are:
 - academic qualifications (= grades)
 - motivation (letter of motivation)
 - well-planned study proposal that is realistic and feasible
 - sufficient language skills

Opportunities Abroad at the HCU

1.3 Non-Erasmus Free Mover Study

- HCU-PROMOS (lower priority)
 - Support from agencies: GoStralia, Ranke-Heinemann, magoo, IEC, ...
 - Mind the admission process
 - Mind the Tuition Fees
- Min. 2 Semesters: DAAD one-year scholarship
 - Germans and non-Germans (unless: incoming scholarship holders)
 - significantly higher stipend than PROMOS! However: Mind the tuition fees!
 - country-specific deadlines
www.daad.de/ausland/studieren/stipendium/de/70-stipendien-finden-und-bewerben/
- USA: Fulbright
 - Only for Germans
 - Full and partial scholarships: Deadline = end of June 2020; announced via HCU-email
 - Travel stipend: Deadline = Jan 2020
